

Short Story Competition

$6,000 in Available
Awards

Dedicated to advancing the education of asylee and refugee students

Blandon Law, an immigration and asylum law firm in South Florida, is dedicated to helping clients as they navigate the U.S. immigration process. We also believe that literature has the power to transform lives, and we are proud to help refugee and asylee authors as they pursue their educational goals.

How to Participate

Student authors should submit their application and an original work of short fiction (1,500 words or less) to Project Renew by the May 15th deadline.

Request additional information and participation form from Project Renew:

Web: www.broward.edu/renew
Email: RENEW@broward.edu
Phone: 954-201-2672

Awards

First-place prize: $5,000
Second-place prize: $1,000

Awards Ceremony

An award certificate will be presented to the winning students on World Refugee Day, June 16. Award funds will be disbursed to Broward College.

Who is Eligible

Broward College students who are asylees, refugees or legal permanent residents of the United States (former asylee or refugee).

The Blandon Law Asylees as Authors Awards are not open to U.S. citizens.

All awards are offered annually and are non-renewable.

